

Porterhouse Medical Ltd

Porterhouse Medical Ltd is a specialist medical communications agency working with some of the biggest pharmaceutical companies in the world, helping them to connect with a global audience of healthcare professionals and increasingly knowledgeable patients. The company has seen continued growth over the past decade and has recently secured new business wins on both a global and national level. This success has culminated in Porterhouse Medical being recognised with the Queen's Award for Enterprise 2016 – the UK's highest accolade for outstanding achievement in business.

Associate Medical Writer – Job Description

As an associate medical writer, your key responsibilities will include:

- Writing clear, grammatically correct, technical and creative medical/scientific text for a variety of audiences (e.g. healthcare professionals, pharmaceutical sales teams, patients), while paying close attention to detail
- Being able to follow a brief to produce a piece of work that meets the client's needs
- Ensuring the accuracy of all information, data and referencing for the publications / documents produced
- Ensuring projects remain within specification and liaising with clients and colleagues to negotiate changes where necessary
- Learning and understanding new therapeutic areas quickly and comprehensively
- Being able to follow guidance and take on board constructive feedback.

Desired Background and Skills

We are looking for the very best life sciences graduates in order to maintain our reputation as a first-class medical communications agency delivering scientific programmes of the highest quality. Specifically, we are looking for individuals with the following skills and qualifications:

- A Bachelor's degree (2:1 or higher) in a life science (biological sciences, biomedical sciences, biochemistry, or a closely-related subject) with a strong academic record; appropriate postgraduate qualifications will add to the strength of the application
- A strong work ethic and a solution-focused 'can do' attitude combined with intellectual curiosity and creativity
- A passion for medical communications and education
- The ability to work effectively in teams in a fast-paced, dynamic and creative environment.
